

Roanoke, Va.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROANOKE, Va., April 28.—Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Burke entertained a number of their friends Wednesday night at their handsome home, on South Jefferson Street, at a progressive euchre party. There were five tables of six-handed euchre. The game cards were of handsome hand-painted designs, the work of their talented young son, Master Herbert Burke. The lady's prize, a silver hair receiver, was won by Mrs. Mary B. Picklin; the gentleman's prize by Mr. Charles Ogden, and the consolation prize by Mr. E. H. Spence. Refreshments were served in color. The entire lower floor was beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers, the color scheme being pink and yellow.

The Southwest Shakespeare Club will have their first rehearsal of Edwin Booth's parlor version of "Taming of the Shrew" at the home of Miss Mary Work, on Fourteenth Avenue, S. W., next Monday afternoon. This play will be presented privately some time during May. At the end of every season this club presents a play. Last spring they gave "A Shakespearean Conference." A Virginia Rogers, daughter of Captain and Mrs. M. M. Rogers, will be married in June to P. W. Boyd, Jr., of Winchester. The prospective bride is one of the loveliest young women of this section, and comes of distinguished ancestry. Her father made a fine record in the Confederate army, while her mother is a daughter of the late George P. Tayloe, who was one of the wealthiest and most prominent planters of this section. The prospective bride was given a linen shower Thursday evening by Mrs. Joseph Cox and Mrs. Robert Churchill.

The Roanoke Dramatic Club, which is under the direction of Mr. T. W. Goodwin, an actor, have in rehearsal for presentation on the 15th of May a play that is the joint work of two Roanokers. The author of the story is Mr. Louis Sholtz, the well-known proprietor of the Virginia Brewery, and it was dramatized by Mr. John W. Sherman, the well-known newspaper man and playwright. The title is "The Iron Kink," and it tells a story of an unfortunate international marriage and its results, with a mixture of lights and shadows. It will be played for the benefit of the Uniform Rank of Pythians.

No Reason For It.

When Richmond Citizens Show The Way.

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the dangers of diabetes or any kidney illa when relief is so near at hand and the most positive proof given that they can be cured. Read what a Richmond citizen says:

J. D. Stubbs, moulder, of 411 3rd St., says: "For the last twenty years I have suffered almost constantly with a dull aching pain across the small of my back and through the region of the kidneys. At times it was so severe that I could hardly get around to attend to my work. At night I did not rest well and in the morning would be tired and lame. If I stooped twinges caught me and I felt miserable all the time. I took remedy after remedy, wore plasters and rubbed my back, but with no permanent relief. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at Owens & Minor Drug Co.'s store. Their good effect was soon evident. The one box did me more good than all the other remedies put together, and I am only too pleased to recommend them in return for the good that they have done me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 60 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Still another marriage of much interest to society, though it was celebrated away, was that of Mr. J. Edwin Bunting, of the city, and Miss Bertha Lucinda Brooks, of Atlanta, Ga.
